

7. What is Carlow College's Disclosure Policy?

Learners are encouraged to disclose information on their disability/learning difference or additional requirements through the CAO process, at the start of their studies, or at any point during their time at Carlow College.

The decision to disclose rests solely with the individual student.

Any information disclosed will remain confidential and elements will only be disclosed, with written permission from the learner, to specific individuals in the College for the purpose of arranging supports/exam accommodations.
